Are we

sinning?

Or are we winning?

Our answer much depends on to whom we are listening.

If we're listening to God, we're most likely
winning.

If we're listening to Satan, we're most likely
sinning.

To cease
sinning,
we must cease listening ...

to voices whispering lies in our ears and to our eyes—through TV, movies, novels, music—diversions with evil ties.

The devil's goal is to destroy through lies, deception, & disguise.
Let's heed nothing that conflicts with God's Word and leads to ...

compro mise

To keep winning,
we must keep listening ...

to the tender voice of God, each moment, each day that we rise.

Let's listen to Jesus Christ;
He'll never tell us lies.

Let's heed the Holy Spirit;
He loves to make us wise.

Let's read His Holy Word through which He'll lovingly advise.

Our merciful Father
loves to forgive,
and gives us many tries.
He longs for us to be happy and to win the heavenly prize.

So, to Lucifer,
let's cease listening,

and, to the Lord,
keep listening.

Our earthly and eternal happiness, on each mode, are depending.

Instead of obeying the voice of God, listening to the warnings and admonitions He had given, they gave heed to the counsels of their own hearts, and to words from the lips of men. Thus they imperiled not only their own souls, but the souls of others through their influence.

{In Heavenly Places}

We have decided that it is best to listen to God and raise up the foundation of many generations.

And what is it? The law of God!
